

Graduate Women Victoria Awards Available in 2024

Scholarship Category	Award	Value
Indigenous Undergraduate	Bursary	$3000
	Marilyn Godley Scholarship	$5000
Honours Arts /Humanities	Taines Scholarship	$7000
Teaching/Education Masters	Bursary	$3500
	E.D. Daniels Scholarship	$7000
Masters by Coursework, by Research, and Extended	SWAN Bursary	$3500
	Bursary	$3500
	*Judith Rodriguez Bursary	$5000
	*May Kentish Scholarship	$7000
PhD	Philippa McCall Scholarship	$7000
	*Madeleine Capicchiano Bursary	$4000
	Feminist Fathers Bursary	$5000
	Feminist Fathers Bursary	$5000
	William & Elizabeth Fisher Scholarship	$8000
	*Members Scholarship	$8000

An * indicates that this award has special criteria as in

*The Judith Rodriguez Bursary is open to applicants studying in the area of literary, visual or related arts, e.g. film or music.

*The May Kentish Scholarship is open to applicants whose areas of study and career plans are relevant to areas of social justice, national or international,

*The Madeleine Capicchiano Bursary is open to applicants whose research is on issues of human rights or social justice at the local, national or international level.

*The Members Scholarship is open to applicants who can demonstrate that their research and career plans support the aims of Graduate Women Victoria as defined in the GWV Constitution, namely:

The purposes of Graduate Women Victoria are to promote

- the right of women and girls to accessible and affordable quality education in order to reach their full potential in private and public life;
- education as a means of influencing and benefiting society;
- the recognition and protection of human rights;
- peace, justice and equality.

Pease Note: You will be asked to indicate in your application if you wish to be considered for any of these awards. Doing so will not prevent your being considered for any of the unrestricted awards available in your category.